

UGBA 156 Berkeley Changemaker: Living with Agency

Time: 10:00 am - 12:00 pm; Wednesdays

Course # 20269

Instructor: Laura Hassner

2 units

Develop a greater sense of “agency” over your life via critical examination of evidence-based, multi-disciplinary research and theories with self-reflection. These are interwoven with implementable strategies, directly applicable to the business context, to help you develop a sharper sense of who you want to be along with tools to make that happen. Frequent guest speakers, simulations, and discussions allow you to learn from others as you expand your network.

Student Reviews:

"Best course I've taken. Ever."

“Whether you’re looking for career expertise, personal guidance, or overall clarity, this is the class, and instructor, who can do it all. Laura is a true steward in the art of teaching, and everyone has something to learn from her character, attitude towards life, and overall domain expertise.”

“This instructor promotes a ‘learning laboratory’ and helps students be their very best in the personal and professional field.”

- Faculty Club lunches with speakers
- Average of 23 different majors
- Course qualifies for Berkeley Changemaker certificate

“Laura is a professor who teaches with passion. You can tell she loves what she does and genuinely wants to help her students the best she can.”

“Because of the ever changing aspects of life and the takeaways I’ve found from this class, I’ve grown to be a new person with a fresh perspective on life.”

For questions or syllabus, please email changemaker@berkeley.edu